

SAVE THE DATE! 4/19/18

New York Logger Training, Inc. - MUD SEASON Workshop Series

Announces:

The Future Viability of Loggers in New York

(1 NYLT CE Credit)

April 19, 2018 Double Tree Hotel Binghamton, NY

Draft Agenda

8:00..... Registration, Coffee, Muffins, etc.

8:30..... Welcome (René Germain, SUNY ESF)

8:30..... Legislative (EFFI) Update
Presenter: John Bartow, ESFPA

8:45..... New York's Logging Community
Presenter: Eileen Townsend, NELA

9:30..... How are log and lumber markets?
Presenter: Bill Smith, SUNY ESF

Break: 10:15

10:30..... The Forest Resource and Sustained Yield Management
Presenter: Christopher Nowak, SUNY ESF

11:15..... New York Loggers: Are they striving, thriving or just surviving?
Presenter: René Germain, SUNY ESF

Lunch: 12:00 - 1:00

1:00..... Strategies for Thriving: Financing new or newer equipment
Presenter: TBA, Farm Credit

1:45..... Strategies for Thriving: Get a Business Plan
Presenter: Mat Zlomek, Business Coach

Break: 2:30

2:45..... Strategies for Thriving: Tips for working on State Forest Lands
Presenter: Tim Day, NYS DEC

3:30..... Strategies for Thriving: Lessons learned from West Virginia
Presenter: Ben Spong, WV University

4:15..... Closing remarks - workshop evaluations (René Germain, SUNY ESF)

4:30.....Adjourn

Workshop cost is $25 per person to Register
please call New York Logger Training, Inc. at
(518) 463-1297